Coffee and snacks

Tournament Atmosphere:

The atmosphere was pleasant and friendly but competitive, as expected from the Philly club. The room was not overcrowded and no section of it was too hot or too cold. The lobby area was excellent for waiting without too much noise going into the room.

Complaints and Issues:

Several complaints were received about body odor from participants, which is not something within the organizer's control generally.

Clarification was requested on note taking / requesting mid-game score counts to be written when multiple competing opinions were offered. The organizers clarified the rules on this before the next hanchan began.

Observer Personal Summary:

I always greatly enjoy my time at the Philly Riichi Open and this tournament was no exception! Their new space worked perfectly for the event, the tournament staff were prepared and organized, and the energy was positive and competitive all weekend. Can't wait to come back again next year!
