Observer Personal Summary:

The North Texas Riichi Open 2025 is a well-organized and enjoyable tournament. The organizers were very considerate despite the high temperatures during the days of the competition. Multiple solutions were implemented quickly, including providing unlimited bottled iced water, adjusting the AC temperature, and putting paper on the windows.

The judges are consistently helpful and fair, further enhancing the quality of the competition. There were a few complaints, and they are recorded above.

The free play is also enjoyable and has a very good atmosphere.
